Fort Wayne, Indiana

Gentlemen:

In accordance with the statutory requirements of Indiana, Fort Wayne Transit, Inc. hereby notifies you that on this date, August 4, 1967, Fort Wayne Transit, Inc. filed with the Public Service Commission of Indiana at 902 State Office Building, Indianapolis, Indiana, its tariff P.S.C.I. No. B-7 cancelling previous tariffs P.S.C.I. No. B-5 and P.S.C.I. No. E-2 and supplements thereto.

This tariff will eliminate the ten cents (10¢) area fare formerly effective in the "Green Zone" (between railroads on Calhoun Street) and near the ends of the Northcrest, Glenbrook, Waynedale and New Haven Lines. This tariff also eliminates the five cents (5¢) transfer charge formerly made on a bus passing through the central business district from one end of a double end line to the other.

The new tariff does not change the basic adult cash fare of twenty five cents (25¢) for a single ride on any regularly scheduled bus operating on a regular line in Fort Wayne, or the adult fare of thirty cents (30¢) between New Haven and Fort Wayne. It retains the five cents (5¢) transfer charge for a change to another bus, or special service industrial tripper buses operating on two or more lines.

A copy of the tariff is enclosed herewith.

Very truly yours,
